

Keynote Address:

The Power of Intervention

As an individual whose childhood was tainted by poverty and other difficult challenges, Liz has become a well-known child advocate in Alabama. Liz serves on several boards, including Leadership Alabama Board of Directors, Children's First Foundation Board of Directors, Children's Village Board of Directors, Alabama School Readiness Alliance and Project Gear (President and Co-Founder).

Elizabeth "Liz" Huntley joined Lightfoot, Franklin & White with nearly ten years of litigation experience in 2008. She practices in the areas of Banking & Financial Services, Consumer Law, Business Litigation and Products Liability.

Liz earned her J.D. from the University of Alabama School of Law, where she was an editor of the Law and Psychology Review, and now serves as Chair of the law school's Board of Trustees for Farrah Law Society. Liz received her undergraduate degree from Auburn University, where she now serves on the University's Board of Trustees.
